

Dear Shareholder

On behalf of the Board of AstraZeneca PLC (the Company), I am pleased to confirm that the Annual Report and Form 20-F Information 2010 (the Annual Report) has now been published, as well as the Notice of Annual General Meeting 2011 and Shareholders' Circular (the Notice of AGM).

What you should have received

If you have previously requested paper copies of these documents, or you became a shareholder of the Company after 27 February 2009, you will find paper copies enclosed with this pack.

If you have previously elected to receive these documents via the AstraZeneca website, you can now access the Annual Report at astrazeneca.com/annualreport2010 and the Notice of AGM at astrazeneca.com/noticeofmeeting2011.

Everyone who receives this letter will also find a proxy card and AstraZeneca 2010 In Brief enclosed.

AstraZeneca 2010 In Brief

In AstraZeneca 2010 In Brief, you will find selected extracts from the Annual Report. These extracts have been taken without material adjustment and include information about AstraZeneca and a summary of our performance in 2010, as well as dividend information. This year we have also included some examples of what we are doing around the world to make a meaningful difference to patient health.

While I very much hope that you will find the AstraZeneca 2010 In Brief document interesting and a convenient way to keep you informed about the Company, you should be aware that the document is only intended to introduce the information contained in the Annual Report. Consequently, it should not be read as a substitute for the Annual Report itself which remains the most comprehensive current source of information about the Company. You can find the Annual Report on our website, astrazeneca.com/annualreport2010.

Communicating with you

I would urge shareholders to consider opting to receive all future information from the Company in electronic format. There are clear environmental benefits and cost savings arising from reduced paper usage, printing and distribution if you do so.

You can do this by registering your details at shareview.co.uk and electing for e-communications. Whenever shareholder communications are published, we will send you an e-mail with a link to the information on the AstraZeneca website.

If you have received the Annual Report and the Notice of AGM in paper format with this letter, and you wish to continue to receive these documents in paper format in the future, then please complete and return the Shareholder Communications Election Form attached to the proxy card.

Please note that dividend notifications will continue to be sent to all shareholders by post.

More information for shareholders is on the back of this letter.

Yours faithfully

ShareGift

The Company welcomes and values all of its shareholders, no matter how many or how few shares they own. However, shareholders who have only a small number of shares whose value makes it uneconomic to sell them, either now or at some stage in the future, may wish to consider donating them to charity through ShareGift, an independent charity share donation scheme. One feature of the scheme is that there is no gain or loss for UK capital gains tax purposes on gifts of shares through ShareGift, and it may now also be possible to obtain UK income tax relief on the donation. Further information about ShareGift can be found on its website, sharegift.org, or by contacting ShareGift on 020 7930 3737 or at 17 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AH. ShareGift is administered by The Orr Mackintosh Foundation, registered charity number 1052686. More information about the UK tax position on gifts of shares to ShareGift can be obtained from HM Revenue & Customs on their website, hmrc.gov.uk.

The Unclaimed Assets Register

The Company supplies unclaimed dividend data to the Unclaimed Assets Register (UAR), which provides investors who have lost track of shareholdings with an opportunity to search the UAR's database of unclaimed financial assets on payment of a small fixed fee. The UAR donates part of the search fee to charity. The UAR can be contacted on 0870 241 1713 or at PO Box 9501, Nottingham NG80 1WD.
